Petro Canada's Petro Pass Site
Centennial Business Park

Available right now, commercial lots in Dryden's Centennial Business Park are ready to help you profitably serve your local and long-distance markets.

The Park's greenfield site is zoned for commercial development. Water, sewer, electricity, natural gas, high-speed Internet and mobile telephone will all be in place by the summer of 2011.

A city block north of the Trans-Canada Highway, the Park has ready access to Highway 502 just 188 km/117 mi to the U.S. border – and it is 10 km from full-service Dryden Regional Airport.

In Dryden, the gateway to Western Canada, the Centennial Business Park is open for your business. Call us today!

Market Access

The Trans-Canada Highway links Dryden with markets in Thunder Bay and Winnipeg, and Highway 502 links Dryden to Highway 11 as well as to the United States border at Fort Frances.

Dryden is home to several trucking companies that include Stephen Blair Contracting, Skene Transfer & Supply, Gardewine North, Courtesy Freight Systems Ltd., Wayne Peters Trucking, Dave Toews Contracting, Manitoulin Transport Inc. and Kinderlane Enterprises Ltd. Local couriers include Bri-Mar Courier Plus, Northern Parcel, B&M Delivery and Greyhound.

Dryden Regional Airport offers daily scheduled and charter domestic flights. It offers a full service facility with Seasonal Customs and Immigration, aviation fuels, ILS and a 6,000 x 150 feet paved runway. The CANPASS Remote Area Border Crossing program allows people to cross the border at remote areas in Ontario from Pigeon River to Lake of the Woods and the Canadian Shore of Lake Superior.

Dryden's location offers competitive shipping costs to/from anywhere, although great opportunities and pricing exist for backhauls:

- east to Dryden from Winnipeg
- east from Dryden to Toronto, and
- north to Dryden from Chicago
